JANUARY 2008

Bringing in the New Year

We hope everyone had a safe and happy new year! With the year 2008 underway there are already several events scheduled throughout the state. With everyone working together we can make 2008 the safest year yet!

Congratulations to the Kippenbrock's!

We would like to congratulate Ken and Nikki Kippenbrock on the newest addition to their family, Jordyn Olivia Kippenbrock! Jordyn was born on January 7, 2008.

School Resource Officer of the Year Nominations

During the Fifth Annual Safe Schools and Communities Conference, the Kentucky Center for School Safety and the Kentucky Association of School Resource Officers plan to recognize School Resource Officers who have served as strong role models, and have provided services to their schools and communities above and beyond what is expected of their position. If you would like to nominate an officer, please e-mail Lee Ann Morrison at leeanmorrison@roadrunner.com. She will need the name of the officer and a paragraph as to why the officer should receive the award.

Thank you for your nominations!

Letter From the President

KYASRO Members,

I hope you had a very safe and happy holiday season.

Once again it's time to start planning for the annual conference and I encourage you to start thinking about SROs that you would like to recognize for our annual KYASRO awards. Ballots for the awards will be sent out with conference registration materials but it's never too early to start thinking about how an SRO you work with affects your school community. Also, I encourage you to visit the NASRO website and watch for the call of applications for national awards. We were so proud to have Kenny Collins win the national award last year and I would love to see more of our officers or programs recognized at a national level. As members of KYSARO, I also want to encourage you to consider running for one of the twelve KYASRO Board of Director positions that will become vacant this year. Elections will be held at the Fifth Annual Safe Schools and Communities conference that is scheduled for June 16th - 18th in Ft. Mitchell KY. If you are unable to attend, you will be eligible to vote by absentee ballot. Once again, the conference will be co-sponsored by the KYSARO, DARE, and KCPC associations as well as the Kentucky Center for School Safety.

The term of the offices is two years and the positions that are open are as follows:

President

Vice-President

1st Vice-President

Secretary

Treasurer

Sergeant at Arms

1st Region Representative

2nd Region Representative

3rd Region Representative

4th Region Representative

5th Region Representative

6th Region Representative

*please see the next page for map of region locations

The remaining two positions on the Board, Chaplain and Educational Advisor, are appointed by the President.

You will be receiving more information on the board elections in a separate mailing in March. If you have any questions, please contact me at todd.brendel@erlanger.kyschools.us. Again, thank you for all your participation and support of KYASRO in 2007.

Todd Brendel, KYASRO President

It's that time again! The Annual Safe Schools and Communities Conference is Just Around the Corner!

The fifth Annual Safe Schools and Communities conference date has been set! Please mark your calendar for June 16 - 18 2008. The conference will be held at the Drawbridge Inn located in Ft. Mitchell, KY. The Registration fee will be $150.00 and rooms are available at the hotel for a rate of $80.00. EILA credit will be offered for school administrators.

Be sure to register for this year's family night, a riverboat cruise! Watch for registration materials in late March.

Regional SRO Trainings

The Kentucky School Board Association will be sponsoring regional trainings for school resource officers and school administrators in the FY08-09 school year. We need your input on training topics and locations. Please email leeanmorrison@roadrunner.com with your suggestions.

2008 NASRO Conference

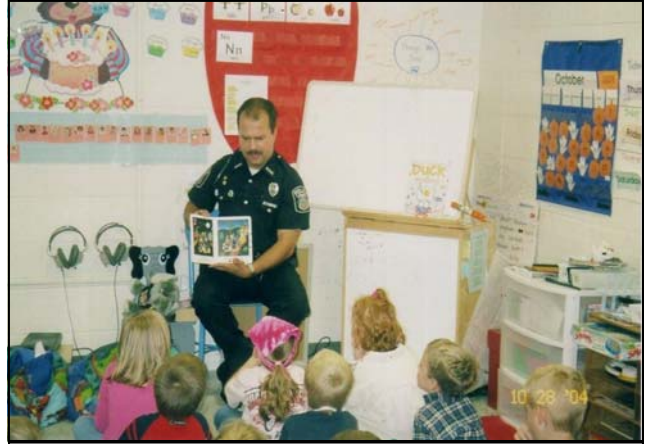

The 18th Annual NASRO conference will be held July 26th - August 1st at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort and Spa in Phoenix, Arizona. Some of the topics include Anti bullying/Character Education, Behavioral Science – why kids do what they do, Crime Prevention through Campus Analysis and Drug Recognition-current updates. For more information go to www.nasro.org/conference.

Southeastern Law Enforcement Conference

The June 2-5, 2008 Southeastern Law Enforcement Training Seminars (SELETS) website has been updated with the most recent changes in our 12th annual seminar. This seminar looks to be the most exciting and relevant one in the past several years. There have been several changes from past seminars to include a tactical pistol course by Colt Defense LLC, a more 'hands on' approach to training, a significant upgrade in concern over vendor/exhibitor needs, a special area for authors/book signings, and a really immediate impact topic "Major Incident Management-School Shootings, Prevention, Preparation and Survival. The website has been revised (www.selets.com) and there are great opportunities for exhibitor and vendor participation with more concentration of effort to ensure you get maximum exposure to your product line if it be firearms to web gear. Join us in Lawrenceburg, TN in June 2008.
