

The Kentucky Center for School Safety (KCSS) would like to congratulate Dr. James Evans, Superintendent of Lee County Schools, for being named the 2018 Superintendent of the Year by the Kentucky Association of School Administrators (KASA). It is an accolade he well deserves.

Always an advocate for children in any role that he assumes, Dr. Evans has been very active with KCSS for many years serving as a safe school assessor, school safety advocate with state legislators, and KCSS Executive Board chairman and member. Whenever called upon to promote a cause that benefits children, Jim Evans is never too busy to participate. The passion, positivity and generosity he brings to all projects he undertakes make him the consummate professional educator and devoted child advocate as a school superintendent. He truly is one-of-a-kind and we could not be more proud of him. Again, congratulations Jim, you deserve it.

Dr. James Evans & KCSS Executive Director Jon Akers at KASS Conference, Marriott Hotel, Lex., Ky., December 12, 2017