

KYCCBD PRESENTS

BEHAVIOR INSTITUTE 2019

JUNE 13 & 14

LOUISVILLE INTERNATIONAL
CONVENTION CENTER

221 South 4th Street
Louisville, KY

Over 100 In-State Sessions & Speakers

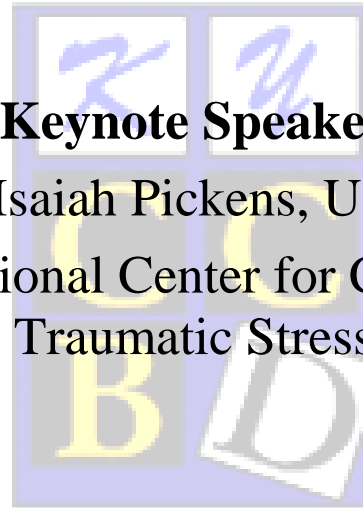

Strands include presentations from exemplary schools/districts and educators, and cover topics including

MTSS (Building Multi-Tiered Systems of Support)
Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports
Trauma-Informed Practices
Social-Emotional Learning
Classroom Behavior Management
Restorative Practices
Effective Instruction/Student Engagement
Interconnected Systems Framework
Anger Management
Proactive Leadership
Coaching and Administrator Practices
Proactive School & Psychological Safety Measures
Teaching Emotional Self –Regulation
School-Based Mental Health Partnerships & Services
High-Leverage & Evidence-Based Practices.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Isaiah Pickens, UCLA,
National Center for Child
Traumatic Stress

Additional National Speakers:

- Dr. Sharon Hoover, Director, National Center for School Mental Health on integrating trauma-informed practices & tiered MH Services into school settings
- Dr. Clayton Cook, University of Minnesota, on tiered MTSS strategies for school/classrooms
- Mathew Portell, Principal, Falls-Hamilton Elementary School, Nashville, TN, on trauma-responsive schools
- Jim Sporleder, past Principal of Walla-Walla Alternative High School, Washington, on trauma & tough kids
- Sasha Long, MA/BCBA and author of “The Autism Helper”, an online strategy resource center, on practical classroom supports and strategies

To register, go to the Kentucky Council for Exceptional Children Website at <http://community.ccc.sped.org/kycec/divisions/ccbd/2019-behavior-institute-registration>