

Trauma Informed Practices for Educators and School Personnel Learning Collaborative

The University of Kentucky Center on Trauma and Children is pleased to announce the launch of the 2020-2021 the Trauma Informed Practices for Educators and School Personnel Learning Collaborative September 22nd and 23rd, 2020 (Online Sessions). This learning collaborative is an opportunity for school personnel to learn about and implement trauma informed practices in their schools and districts. Trauma-informed Practices can help students who have been exposed to trauma learn and function more effectively at school. This learning collaborative helps schools meet the requirements of the School Safety and Resiliency Act (KRS 158/SB1) that requires the development of a trauma informed team in each district and a plan for implementing trauma informed approaches in schools.

Learning Session 1: September 22nd and 23rd, 9:30-3:30 EST - Virtual Format

Learning Session 2: December 1st, 9:30-3:30 EST - Virtual Format

Learning Session 3: TBD March 2021

Click the link below for more information and to register for this learning collaborative. Districts that have not previously participated in a Project AWARE Trauma-Informed Practices for Educators and School Personnel Learning Collaborative will receive priority.

Trauma Informed Practices for Educators Train the Trainer

This workshop is designed to focus on developing a cohort of trainers that can aid school personnel in understanding and working with children whose lives have been affected by trauma. Specifically, individuals will leave this training with science, skill, and knowledge to provide training that will assist school personnel in managing challenging behaviors exhibited by children suffering from trauma related symptoms by using trauma-sensitive approaches to behavior management and emotional regulation.

There are two separate sessions for this event:

- Group 1: January 19th, 20th, 21st - 9:30-12:30 EST Time – Virtual Format
- Group 2: February 16th, 17th, 18th - 9:30-12:30 EST Time – Virtual Format
- An additional learning session for both groups - (TBD March 2021)

Registration for the Train the Trainer event is not yet open but you can complete the form below to signal your interest in participating.
